GENERAL PRODUCT TERMS

Listed below are some basic terms and their definitions. Please refer to the product brochure and disclosure for more information.

PREMIUM

The amount paid into the annuity contract.

ACCUMULATION VALUE

The premium, and interest credited, if any, less withdrawals.

DEATH BENEFIT

Your beneficiary will have the choice to receive the Accumulation Value (including any partial interest credits). The death benefit will never be less than the minimum requirements set forth by state laws, at the time of issue, in the state where the contract is delivered.

MARKET VALUE ADJUSTMENT (MVA)

May be applied during the Surrender Charge period. See the market value adjustment section at the end of this illustration for more information.

SURRENDER VALUE

The amount that is available at the time of surrender. The surrender value is equal to the Accumulation Value, subject to the MVA, if any, less applicable surrender charges, and applicable state premium taxes. The surrender value will never be less than the minimum requirements set forth by state laws, at the time of issue, in the state where the contract is delivered or issued for delivery.

SURRENDER CHARGES

A surrender charge is assessed on any amount withdrawn, whether as a partial or full surrender, that exceeds the penalty-free withdrawal amount.

Surrender Charge Schedule Years 1 to 10:

10%, 10%, 9%, 9%, 8%, 8%, 7%, 6%, 4%, 2%

PENALTY-FREE WITHDRAWALS

Beginning in the second contract year, you may take a penalty-free withdrawal (also known as a penalty-free partial surrender) without surrender charges, or MVA, of up to 10% of your beginning of year accumulation value.

WITHDRAWAL AND ANNUITY PAY-OUT OPTIONS

On your Maturity Date (the contract anniversary when The Annuitant is age 115), the payout options available include: Life options, Joint and Survivor options and Period Certain options.

| | Accumulation Value at Maturity | Monthly Factor/$1000 | Monthly Annuity Income |
|---|---|---|---|
| Guaranteed | $1,229,222.00 | 8.96 | $11,013.82 |

PROJECTED ILLUSTRATED VALUES

This illustration assumes the index will repeat historical performance and that the annuity's current non-guaranteed elements, such as Cap Rates, Margins, and Participation Rates will not change. It is likely that the index will not repeat historical performance, the nonguaranteed elements will change, and actual values will be higher or lower than those in this illustration but will not be less than the minimum guarantees. The values in this illustration are not guarantees or even estimates of the amounts you can expect from your annuity. Please review the disclosure document provided with your illustration and Buyer's Guide for more detailed information. All rates are effective as of the date of this illustration and are subject to change at any time.

NOTE ON SIMULATED RETURNS: If an index was established during the last twenty years, performance before the index inception is back-tested.

The results obtained from "back-testing" should not be considered indicative of the actual results that might be obtained from an investment in the index. The actual performance of the index may vary significantly from the results obtained from back-testing. Unlike an actual performance record, simulated results are achieved by means of the retroactive application of a back-tested model itself designed with the benefit of hindsight and knowledge of factors that may have possibly affected its performance. North American provides no assurance or guarantee that any product linked to the index will operate or would have operated in the past in a manner consistent with these materials. Calculation based on simulated performance is purely hypothetical and may not be an accurate or meaningful comparison. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not necessarily indicative of future results.

The performance of indexes managed to a volatility target will not match the performance of any other index or the markets in general since volatility control tends to reduce both the rate of negative performance and positive performance of the underlying index, thereby creating more stabilized performance.

CREDITING STRATEGIES

INDEX ACCOUNT

Some or all of your premium may be allocated to the Index Account which offers several different indexes and crediting methods.

FIXED ACCOUNT

Premium allocated to the Fixed Account will earn the current interest rate which is credited daily. The initial interest rate is guaranteed for the first contract year. For each subsequent contract year we will declare, at our discretion, a rate that will apply for the following year.

CREDITED INTEREST RATE (INTEREST CREDIT)

The rate of interest credited from the Fixed Account and Index Account(s) to the Accumulation Value.

TERM POINT-TO-POINT WITH CAP RATE

This method is offered using one-year and two-year terms. This method measures index growth using two points in time: the index values at the beginning and end of the term. Interest credits are calculated based on the growth between these two values then subject to a cap rate. The interest credit will never be less than zero. At the end of each term we will declare new cap rates at least as high as the guarantees listed in your contract.

TERM POINT-TO-POINT WITH PARTICIPATION RATE

This method is offered using an annual point-to-point and a two year point-to-point. This method measures index growth using two points in time: the index values at the beginning and end of the term. Interest credits are calculated based on the growth between these two values multiplied by a participation rate. The interest credit will never be less than zero. At the end of each term we will declare new participation rates at least as high as the guarantees listed in your contract.

TERM POINT-TO-POINT WITH PARTICIPATION RATE AND INDEX MARGIN

This method is offered using a two year point-to-point. This method measures index growth using two points in time: the index values at the beginning and end of the term. Interest credits are calculated based on the growth between these two values less an index margin, then multiplied by a participation rate. The interest credit will never be less than zero. At the end of each term we will declare a new participation rate at least as high as the guarantee listed in your contract and an index margin not higher than the guarantee listed in your contract.

MARKET VALUE ADJUSTMENT (MVA)

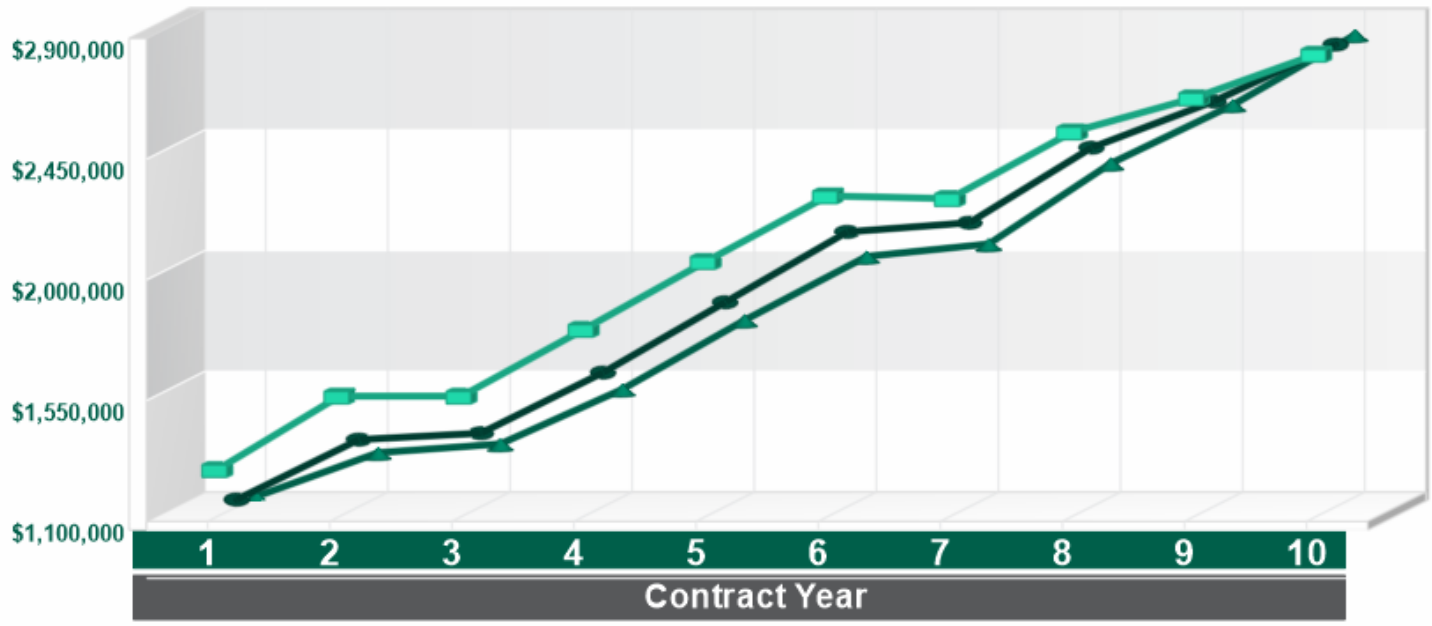
Your contract also includes a market value adjustment feature-which may decrease or increase your surrender value depending on the change in the market value adjustment external index rate since your annuity purchase. Due to the mechanics of a market value adjustment, surrender values generally decrease as the market value adjustment external index rate rises or remains constant. When the market value adjustment external index rate decreases enough over time, the surrender value generally increases. However, the market value adjustment is limited to the surrender charge or the interest credited to the Accumulation Value.

After the MVA is applied, the surrender value will never be less than the Minimum Guaranteed Surrender Value or greater than the Accumulation Value. An MVA is applied only during the surrender charge period to full surrenders and any partial surrenders in excess of the Penalty-Free Partial Surrender Allowance. Changes in the Accumulation Value due to market value adjustment are not quoted in this illustration.

The graph below shows the projected surrender value under sample MVA scenarios as described below during the surrender charge period of the Contract based on the initial premium amount and the assumption that there are no partial surrenders.



Interest Rates on which the MVA is based:

- Decrease by 2%
- Remain the Same
- Increase by 2%

A surrender during the surrender charge period could result in a loss of premium. Surrender charge structure may vary by state.

Fixed index annuities are not a direct investment in the stock market. They are long term insurance products with guarantees backed by the issuing company. They provide the potential for interest to be credited based in part on the performance of specific indices, without the risk of loss of premium due to market downturns or fluctuation. They may not be appropriate for all clients. Interest credits to a fixed index annuity will not mirror the actual performance of the relevant index.

Each external index used with an index account incurs expenses associated with operating the index. These expenses are not deducted from the accumulation value but how the index provider allocates these expenses may reduce the external index performance or affect the various rates and margins described above that limit interest credits.

Actual performance of the index may vary significantly from PIP data. The level of the Barclays Transitions VC is calculated on an excess return basis (net of a notional financing cost) and reflects the deduction of a fee of 0.50% per annum for the Barclays Transitions 6 VC Index and 0.85% per annum for the Barclays Transitions 12 VC Index plus ETF management fees that varies by exposure and rebalancing costs. The fee is not related to the annuity. The hypothetical performance information presented herein does not reflect fees and expenses that an investor would pay in a fixed index annuity. It is not possible to invest directly in an index. All market indices are unmanaged. Not intended to represent the performance of any fixed index annuity.
